EGREM- Company for Music Recording and Publishing

The Company for Music Recording and Publishing (EGREM) is the oldest and most prestigious recording house in Cuba. Its archives treasure a wide catalogue that contains one of the most important and far-reaching music patrimonies of Latin America. We have more than 70,000 matrixes of original versions and re-editions of Cuban music of all genres, with the most popular interpreters of our history.

Today, Cuban music enjoys important dissemination and increasing acknowledgment, due to a great extent to the endeavors of EGREM. For 55 years, it has developed authentic cultural models that reinforce the value chain of music with several business lines that grant it the leadership in Latin America. With its network of establishments, EGREM is also an emblematic meeting place for exchanges of knowledge, dissemination of musical art, essential for the consolidation of collections, research, creation and the enjoyment of all kinds of publics. EGREM is a banner of solidness with a sign of trust in the registration of sound, in the conservation of audiovisual matrixes, in the production of the musical support, in the hand-to-hand commercialization of its products and services, in the representation of the musicians who make up the Excellence Catalogue and the promotion of Cuban music.
